Biographical / Historical

The HR Society was established to foster the professional development of students pursuing Human Resources careers in personnel administration, hiring, training, compensation and benefits, as well as employee and labor relations. The group's mission is to foster an inclusive environment to empower, educate, and engage the members of the HR society. The group meets regularly to develop career knowledge and job readiness through networking, build employable skill sets, professional workshops, liaison with the local HR professionals and the local SHRM chapter. The HR Society promotes opportunities for internships and career as well as degree path mentorship. They are affiliated with the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) through sponsorship by the Southwest Washington Human Resource Management Association (SWHRMA), the SHRM chapter.
