Biographical / Historical

IMA/BAP at WSU Vancouver is an honor society that promotes the objectives of two professional organizations: The Institute of Management Accountants and Beta Alpha Psi. IMA's mission is to provide a forum for research, practice development, education, knowledge sharing, and the advocacy of the highest ethical and best business practices in management accounting and finance.

BAP is an honorary organization for Financial Information students and professionals. Their primary objective is to encourage and give recognition to scholastic and professional excellence in the business information field. This includes promoting the study and practice of accounting, finance, and information systems. They also provide opportunities for self-development, service, and association among members and practicing professionals, and encouraging a sense of ethical, social, and public responsibility.

IMA/BAP at WSU Vancouver caters to students seeking to develop careers in Accounting, Finance, and/or Information Systems, as well as provides them with unique opportunities to connect with professionals in the business community. Through their partnership with BAP the organization emphasizes continuous self-development and instills a sense of ethical, social, and public responsibility. They are dedicated to community service and the development of professional programs, and they participate in national competitions. They have maintained the status of being a Superior Chapter with BAP for several years, and were recognized as the 2011-2012 Club of the Year at WSU Vancouver. Their involvement with IMA provides them with a forum for research, educational development, and advocacy of the highest ethical and business practices in management accounting and finance.
