Biographical / Historical

The International Students Association (ISA) at WSU Vancouver is an organization dedicated to promoting a multicultural exchange of perspectives between international and American students. Their mission is to advocate and provide resources to international students in order to help them assimilate at WSU Vancouver, which in turn develops intercultural understanding, awareness, diversity, and campus-wide integration. ISA also promotes an international education system and provides leadership opportunities for students from different parts of the world. ISA is responsible for planning events for members, and both international and American students are encouraged to take part to offer insights on different cultures while enhancing the college experience.
